Style Notes

Seven pieces that still work when it rains

FREE SNEAK PEEK

Piece I in full, from the 19-page members' notes

The video showed you what. These notes are what comes next.

This sneak peek gives you the first of the seven pieces in full, so you can see what's inside. The other 17 pages are for members.

INSIDE THE FULL 19 PAGES

- [ ] Seven pieces, with what to check before you buy each one
- [ ] 21 outfits, three for each piece
- [ ] How to do it from your own wardrobe
- [ ] What to do on a wet day
- [ ] How to adjust each piece for your shape
- [ ] What you already own: a page to fill in
- [ ] The order to buy, and the door test

Number one
A long coat that isn't black.

A long coat that isn't black

WHY IT WORKS

A black coat is easy, but on a grey day it reads as one dark shape. A deep colour does the same practical job and gives the eye something to look at. Navy is the easiest change, because it already goes with everything you own, black included.

CHECK BEFORE YOU BUY

- [ ] The arm test. Over your thickest knit, lift both arms. Nothing should pull across the back.
- [ ] The shoulder seam. It sits on your shoulder, not down your arm.
- [ ] The length. Walk and sit in it. Mid-shin keeps your legs warm and still clears the stairs.
- [ ] The cloth. Squeeze the sleeve for five seconds. Good wool springs back without a crease.

WITHOUT THE PRICE

Try the men's section and second-hand. A tailor can shorten sleeves.

THREE OUTFITS

The red shoe

1 Long navy coat + navy scarf + one red or burgundy shoe.
Your plainest clothes underneath. The shoe does the work.

Navy and brown

2 Navy coat + chocolate knit + dark jeans + cognac belt and bag.
The one black can't do: brown sits happily beside navy.

Cream underneath

3 Navy coat, open + cream knit + cream trousers + brown boots.
Open at the front, the cream makes one light line.

FROM YOUR WARDROBE	If your only coat is black, keep it and change what's beside it: a navy or burgundy scarf and a brown bag. The black stops being the whole outfit.
ON A WET DAY	Wool sheds light rain. Hang it on a wide hanger when you get in, and let it dry away from the radiator.
FOR YOUR SHAPE	Petite: wear one colour underneath, so a long coat doesn't cut you in half. Fuller in the middle: wear it open, for two long lines down the front.
